

Chain

Love is a word
all but forgotten
when it comes to us
you turned away
and said you were sorry said you were sorry but you got to give it up now here i am

i know you don't love me
and i can't walk away no i can't walk away cause i can't stop my feelings i can't stop my feelings no matter how i pray

you're like a chain
i can't lift and i can't brake chain i can't brake away from you chain tied to the ground with a ten foot stake chain i'm just another link in a long line of fools

you know when i heard the words that you told me
i really went to school i learned love can be strong and sharp as a dagger sharp as a dagger
when it's lonely and cruel

the sun is down and i ain't got no body i ain't got no body no body i can trust and even knowing that any hope of me leaving any hope of me leaving is turning into dust
