

It's Just You

I'm not blue because it's raining big dark sky don't worry me i don't miss the sunny days or the sky of blue so what is wrong with me

i'm so sorry i hurt you such a bad thing for me to do i'm saying i apologize and you know i'll prove it to i know who's best for me

bridge we've come a long way and done so many things i am so proud of
to think my mistake is gonna make you take away your faithful love just kills me

i don't know if you will trust me if you do please take me back i don't care about the world or what it's coming to what am i living for
