

bucksnort blues

well I was headed northeast in my three quarter ton she was headed southwest making her run just like she done one hundred times before but this time was different this time was strange this time was one of those you can't explain and the tears rolled down when she slammed the door in my face yea the bucksnort blues breaking me down cheap hotel in a half way town she broke my heart she broke the news and sent me back to memphis with the bucksnort blues in the blink of an eye my baby was gone so I turned up a hank Williams song those wedding bells will never ring for me ah but there was jack daniels from the other night so we were mixing it up and starting to fight it was down the hatch and down the lost highway
