

i'm not strange, i'm just like you

i like to do what the normal people do comb my hair and wash my face and keep my mustache in it's place

i'm not, i'm not, i'm not, i'm not strange

i got the very same frustrations too you should have seen me in the bar last night i lacked fifteen cents just to get half tight

i'm a real good guy now that's no shit about half the time i'm full of it i like to smoke and drink and have my fun and see how fast my car will run

i don't start anything that i can't end you know i even got married to my girlfriend in the morning i like bacon and eggs and i got balls between my legs
