

the last line

i've given my life to the songs that i sing as a matter of fact i've given everything but the time has come to not make a sound the time has come to lay my burden down

oh woh

oh woh

yes it's come from behind now is the time for the last line

i've managed to keep some friends on my side and i've lived through the times of the rumors and lies but now is the time to rest my heart and let some other innocent fool take my part

oh woh

oh woh

for the last line*

so don't pay me no mind

i'm walking away

you'll see me again on some other day you'll see me again i'll be ready to go and pour out my songs with my heart and my soul

oh woh

yes it's come from behind now is the time

for the last line
