

Like A Candle

What i think no longer matters to you now because of how you are acting lately
i see slip away the happy days of when you stayed and seldom wore a frown

many many nights go by me i'm older now with another song
but i'll remember
once there was a light inside
but now it's died burning
like a candle it is gone

in the mellow of the morning all alone
i feel unknown to everything here beside me you have touched and i feel such a feeling much like i can't carry on

being tired of being wanted you sad goodbye
without a sigh you sailed out on some dream you had of being free away from me or anything that might hold you in ties
