

Mabel And Henry

Mabel Mabel hear my song I wanna carry you back home heck now heck now don't you moan until i get you back home and then if you softly sigh it's alright

heck now Mabel i been good i wouldn't do nobody harm harm you know ain't like me at all tonight no no

Henry Henry thanks a lot you turned out to be the best old friend i got heck now Henry don't you fret i'll go back with you you bet cause i'm gonna be your good luck for tonight heck now Henry I saw you you just waited so good and true i know you couldn't do me no harm

Mabel Mabel i'm so glad if you said no i would be sad heck now put your jacket on and lean on me and i'll take you home and i'm gone sing that lullaby
