

What's Different About Her

I don't know what so different about her the way she walks or how she cuts her hair I don't know what so different about her but her walk is look'n good i swear

I can't stop think'n about her her eyes are deep as a well i look at her and get excited oh you can look at me and tell is it the way that she moves may be the way that she grooves i wonder what's she's about oh i can't figure it out i don't know what's different about ou yeah yeah

it's not the way she turns me on
that gets me off
it's the way
she does the things she does
and she don't get caught what makes her so attractive to me i love the way she shakes that thing it's oh so pleasing you know it makes my poor heart ring

i'm always in doubt can't figure it out wonder what's so different about her

that gets me off
it's the way

what makes me so attracted to her it's something that i wish i knew but if i looked until i found it you know i never would be through

is it the way that she grooves
i can't figure it out
