

Then Landlord Wants The Rent

Get up in the morning I start in with making some coffee
Open the paper and light up a cigarette
I read in the headlines what living like this will do for me
And I know that I shouldn't but I can't stop doing it yet
I barely get going and man don't you know I feel like I'm spent
And the landlord wants the rent
Yeah the landlord wants the rent

The telephone's ringing I ain't even left for the office
The baby is crying the older one won't go to school
At work I'm surrounded with nothing but profit and losses
Driving back home I'm run off of the road by some fool
Up on the tube there's a weird looking dude who says I should repent
And the landlord wants the rent
Yeah the landlord wants the rent

Saturday morning I'm thanking the Lord for the weekend
I start to relax but then there's all of these other plans
I get to drive my wife over to visit with her friends
Stop off at the movies and pick the kids in the van
You wanna know where my get up and go has got up and went
And the landlord wants the rent
Yeah the landlord wants the rent
Yeah the landlord wants the rent
Yeah the landlord wants the rent
